The Good Old Days.. Liquor, No Litter

by Marjory Lloyd

In 1906 the San Francisco earthquake shook a group of stalwart writers into Carmel. Leader of the immigration was Poet George Sterling.

Here they swam in the ocean, climbed rocks, dived for abalone and mussels, rode to picnics on horseback. They also found time to write the poetry, short stories, plays, and books which made Carmel famous as a literary colony. Besides Sterling, the group included James Hopper, former University of California football player and coach who left San Francisco after covering the earthquake and fire for a newspaper; Fred Bechdolt, another newspaperman; and Mike Williams, writer for magazines of the period.

They were joined from time to time by Novelist Jack London. In the "Valley of the Moon" London describes life in Carmel during the end of the first and beginning of the second decades of this century.

There was no city council then to order enforcement of an ordinance which prohibits the drinking, or possession, of alcoholic beverages on the beach... but then, also, there were no tourists to litter the sand with beer cans and bottles, or to harass citizens on their own beach.

In a way, the early group of writers, later joined by artists and musicians, set a standard of conduct on the beach for the citizens of Carmel.

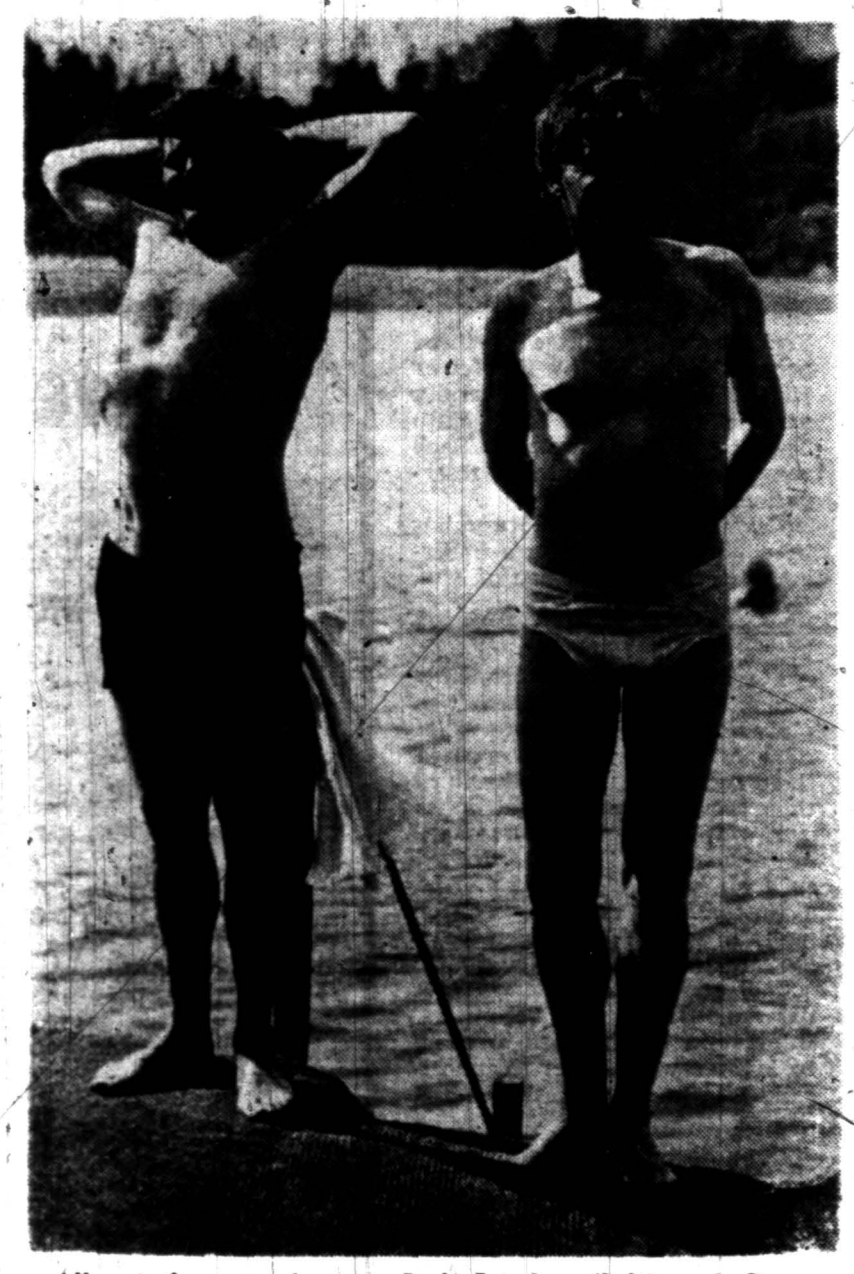

London in the "Valley of the Moon" says none of the men got drunk, although picnic hampers contained vacuum bottles filled with cocktails and red wine in huge demijohns. (In those days no "lady" drank, supposedly.)

The atmosphere of the beach picnics was one of jollity and childlike joy, according to his account.

As the novelist, painters, poets, critics, sculptors, dramatists and musicians pounded abalone for picnic feasts, they made up verses of the Abalone Song. Two are printed below.

Oh! some like ham and some like lamb,
And some like macaroni;
But bring me in a pail of gin

City Employees Given Pay Raise

Last night, the city council voted a four percent cost of living raise to all classified city employees on July 1, but delayed action on raising four paid firemen to officer status with more pay.

The blanket raise for all employees of the police, fire and street departments, city clerk and building inspector's offices; also the city auditor, the director of planning and the building inspector; was opposed by Councilman Norberg and received close scrutiny from Councilman Stephen Grant.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey countered the opposition by stating,

"We get what we pay for. The people of Carmel want quality and will have to pay for it."

Earlier he pointed out that a small city such as Carmel needs employees of higher quality than a large city. This is because the individual employee in Carmel comes into closer contact with the people, needs to acquire a knowledge of the citizens and the peculiar demands of the job he has.

"Effectiveness saves money," he declared.

Bringing the salary scale of city employees up to parity with other Peninsula communities provides a minimum turnover and eliminates consequent expense of training new workers, Mr. Whittlesey added.

"We have to take into consideration other things than the mere relative size of the population," he stressed.

This statement was made in answer to Mr. Norberg who said that Carmel employees were "not badly paid" under the existing scale in comparison with other California cities of less than 5,000 inhabitants.

Mr. Norberg declared that the blanket raise was "a peril to all taxpayers" as it created spiraling inflation.

Drama Group Offers To Operate Forest Theater

A proposal of the Carmel Community Theater injected a ray of sunshine into the foggy future of the Forest Theater last night when Fritz Wurzmann, representing the community dramatic group, told the council that his organization would assume the complete operation and management of the municipal facility if it were put into operable shape.

Last week, the council held for further study a report from Councilmen Gunnar Norberg and Stephen Grant which advised setting aside $9,850 in next year's budget for maintenance, repairs and equipment at the Forest Theater, also consideration of an additional $4,500 to restore the small theater under the outdoor stage.

Otherwise, the report said, the council should keep in mind using the Forest Theater site for a public park and playground as allowed in provisions of the grant deed which gave the city ownership of the hillside land.

Councilman Whittlesey remarked, following the report last week that he would feel justified in restoring the Forest Theater if some definite indication were given by a group interested in using the facility.

Mr. Wurzmann's proposal last night seemed a direct answer to Mr. Whittlesey.

The Community Theater would, however, Mr. Wurzmann said, require a lease of the property and control of scheduling performances by other groups.

"We have to have control of the entire complex," Howard Brunn, a Community Theater director, also told the council.

The control would protect the group's continuity, and this was essential in order to carry on its program of lectures and instruction in stagecraft, acting and children's drama, Mr. Brunn emphasized.

Arts Commission Chairman Geza St. Galy advocated repairing the Forest Theater. He said in the past six years the "helping hands" of the commission had

Trustees Work On $2,220,781 Budget For School District

A tentative budget for the Carmel Unified School District occupied the board of education last night. According to Superintendent Medill Bair this was a "formality" in preparation for adoption of a "reasonably accurate" publication budget on July 15.

Assessed values of property in the district for 1964-65 will not be known until the second week in July. Balances from last year will not be known until after this school year ends. Both of these factors will greatly affect the adoption of the final budget on August 15, also setting of the tax rate for the coming year, Mr. Bair pointed out.

The tentative budget considered last night totaled $2,220,781 as compared to $2,063,348 for 1963-64. Included in the new budget was $64,692 for recreation and $73,719 for adult education.

The board approved working drawings for a large group facility at the high school. Estimated cost for the large lecture room for team teaching, plus four classrooms, is $180,000. Movable interior walls will allow two of these rooms to be made into a larger one; two rooms into smaller ones.

A proposal by Mr. Bair, that teachers undertaking extra coaching duties be paid $550-$750 per year was approved. Previously instructors were given a free period instead of pay. This cost the district too much money, Bair estimated.

"It's too expensive to have a teacher taking one-fifth of his time out," was his comment to the Pine Cone.

Resignations were accepted with regret from Mrs. Patricia Sippel, who wishes to devote her time to bringing up her son instead of teaching business classes at the High School; also Miss Morley Brown, second grade teacher at River School, who will study for a master's degree.

All district administrators were re-employed for the coming year with the exception of Charles Sciutto, high school vice-principal, and Dr. Walter Klas, junior high principal, who both have resigned to take positions elsewhere. Ed Goodrick, director of operations, was granted a five percent raise in pay.

No. 59

I hate the malice of objects inanimate, which shatter my nerves and crudely contaminate my sweet disposition, and knock me insensible, which I must condemn as at least reprehensible.

For I'm constantly dashed in the eye by a door, or some swift-charging chair lays me out on the floor. And I'm always the guy hit by boulders and stones which alight on my noggin or bang on my bones.

Shirts from the laundry — a significant token — emerge with their buttons uncannily broken! And to think of the bulbs which die in their sockets, you'd figure that money just grew in my pockets.

I once wrote a letter to help someone lonely — the words even turned into poisoned baloney. Maybe I should run, so it can't happen again, but haven't the sense to come in out of the rain!

DOWN TO THE SEA

BY LES BOSSHARDT, Master Mariner

"I must go down to the seas again,
To the lonely sea and the sky." — MASEFIELD

Every year in June a large contingent of our local fishermen go to Alaska, where in the Bristol Bay-Naknek river area for about two months they will be a part of hundreds of fishermen recruited from other ports on the Pacific Coast for the great salmon kill. Local fishermen have been making this trek each June for many years. Enough money can be made by the fishermen in two months of fishing up there to take care of their year's living at home and allow the men to fish the local salmon and albacore seasons. Through this Alaska fishing many of our fishermen, over the years have rolled up a tidy bit of money, and for many it has been the means of buying their boats. Indeed the money earned in Alaska has put quite a few of our local fishermen in shoreside business. They shove off for the kill Friday the twelfth. Fair winds and good fishing to you my Hearties!

MARINA DAY

Sunday last was Marina Day, not a celebration of our neighboring town but a day for boaters and prospective boaters to set aside a day of appreciation. Monterey has never been a place that paid much attention to pleasure boating, it has always been the commercial boats that had the run of the harbor. Now that commercial fishing from this port is a "dead duck" some of the citizens hereabouts are just waking up to the fact that pleasure boating can bring lots of money to this area. All credit is due the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club for inaugurating this first Marina Day. Nature's cooperation left a lot to be desired as a hard gale force wind from the South blew the whole day.

Hizzoner the good Mayor of Monterey gave a short address to a handfull of people clustered in the lee of the new building. An Army color guard presented colors. The national anthem was played by a tape recorder that somehow got stuck and rendered them twice and was on the third time around when it died of its own volition. Every one was happy because for a while it looked as if all hands were going to be at attention and saluting for quite a spell. This sailor gives the yacht club a big "well done," do not feel too badly about the first one there will be others. Interest in boating has to come to Monterey as it has to practically all sea ports in the United States.

New Librarian Chosen Tuesday

A months-long search for "exactly the right person" ended for the Harrison Memorial Library Board on Tuesday when Mrs. Dorothy Colvin of Ballston Spa, New York, accepted the position of children's librarian offered to her by telephone. She will assume her new duties on August 1.

At present, Mrs. Colvin is supervisor of work with children in the main library and six branches of the public library system of Albany, New York.

A librarian for the past nine years, she formerly was a public school teacher of English and French, after graduating from the University of New York State in Geneseo. One of her children is grown and will remain in the East, the other two will drive with her to Carmel.

Mrs. Colvin was one of 20 applicants who applied this Spring for the children's librarian position. She was interviewed for the job in Ithaca, New York, by a committee of three persons selected by Professor Helen Gifft of Cornell University at the request of Mrs. Ruth Thornburg, head librarian. Each recommended her without reservation.

Carmel's public library has been without a children's librarian since the resignation of Mrs. Everett Heisinger.

DELINQUENCY STUDY MONDAY IN CARMEL

The committee Mayor Herbert Blanks has appointed to study juvenile delinquency in the Carmel area will meet Monday, 4 p.m., in the city hall.

Do we have a delinquency problem? If so, what is it and what can be done about it? What are the causes? . . . will be questions submitted to the group.

Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, Sheriff Jack Davenport, Judge Eugene Harrah, Police Commissioner James Buffington, County Probation Officer A. H. Giovanetti and representatives from the Carmel Unified School District, parents clubs, high school and junior high student bodies and the Carmel Youth Center will be members of the committee participating in the discussion.

Mayor Blanks appointed the committee following the apprehension of ten juveniles, all Carmel High students, on burglary and petty theft charges last month.

Area Planners Hold Meeting Tonight

The Monterey Peninsula Area Planning Commission will hold an adjourned public hearing on the area plan this evening at 8 p.m. in the Monterey city council chambers in Colton Hall. Adoption of the plan was delayed on May 28 when major landowners in the area objected to greenbelt designations.

Request for postponement was made by Francis Whisler of the architectural firm of Whisler-Patri Associates who indicated he was speaking for Stuyvesant Fish, the Odello brothers, the Work estate and S.F.B. Morse. Delayal was also asked by Richard Bennett of Del Monte Properties Co., Supervisor Tom Hudson, Councilman Gunnar Norberg and Rear Admiral C. Tod Singleton (USN Ret.), chairman of the Citizens Committee for Conservation.

Church Day School Site Blessed Sunday

by Carolyn Elstob

Under a canopy of brilliant blue skies, the surrounding hills emerald green and black in the sunlight, members of All Saints' Episcopal Church and the clergy gathered for the ceremony of blessing of the site for the parish's church day school, Bishop Kip, to be built on the seven and a half acres of meadow land, four miles up Carmel Valley.

The school is now in its third year. Its first term was housed in Holiday House in Pacific Grove. On December 8 of that year classes were transferred to All Saints' Church property in Carmel and were held in the Sunday School rooms there until June 1963. From September 1963 onward classes have been held in the former Community Hospital annex building. With the ever increasing number of students, there are 85 enrolled currently, the need for adequate facilities became vital.

Plans for the new school, by architects Wallace Holm and Associates, were shown at the Sunday ceremony. It is hoped that the six class rooms, and multi-purpose room to be used as a kindergarten, will be ready for use by Christmas and that boys and girls, kindergarten through sixth grade will be entered by January 1, 1965.

The Sunday dedication service was conducted by the Reverend David Hill, pastor of All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Reverend Peter Farmer, director of the Day School; Reverend C. E. Wilson, chaplain of the Robert Louis Stevenson School for Boys in Pebble Beach; Reverend Robert S. Morse, chaplain, York School for Boys, and Reverend George E. Ridgway, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Monterey.

Young students participating were Robert Evans, crucifer; Raymie Miller, flag-bearer; Brian Smith, the son of Dr. Clyn Smith and a third grader at the school, read the epistles at the 11 o'clock communion service held in All Saint's Church when the school's choir participated.

A colorful note was added to the dedication service by Mac Bowe of Carmel who, in full regalia of a Highlander, played hymns on his bagpipes.

Four MPC Faculty On Sabbatical Leave

When the spring semester at Monterey Peninsula College ends June 12, four faculty members who live in the Carmel area, will depart on sabbatical leaves for the academic year 1964-65.

Richard Robinson, instructor in the natural sciences department, will go immediately to Oklahoma State University, where he will work toward his Ph.D. degree on a $3,000 National Science Foundation grant.

H. Duncan Sprague, MPC director of activities, will pursue a similar program at the University of the Pacific. While working on his doctorate, he will act as the university's supervisor of interne counselors and work in the Behavior Clinic.

DeForest Sweeney, member of the English department, will prepare for his sabbatical by attending an Asian Studies Seminar at the University of Hawaii on an East-West Center grant. In August, he and Mrs. Sweeney will leave for Kyoto, Japan, where "Bud" will work with Japanese students as an unpaid consultant at Kyoto University's College of Arts and Sciences.

The balance of the Sweeney sabbatical will be spent in travel to India via Singapore, Malaysia and Kuwat; around the Mediterranean to Egypt and Turkey; thence to Greece, Italy, Spain, France and other Western European countries.

Music instructor John Erickson will, with Mrs. Erickson and their two small daughters, Amy and Molly, fly to New York this month and embark on a freighter in early July. When they arrive "somewhere in northern Europe in the Antwerp-Hamburg range" they'll pick up a car and head for Munich. There Mr. Erickson plans to take an intensive two-month course in German at the Goethe Institute, after which he'll find a private violin teacher and study for the balance of his sabbatical year. The Ericksons also plan to take short trips through Europe by car.

SUNSET COMMITTEE

Chairman Frank Putnam has called the first meeting of the Sunset Committee for July 1 at 8 p.m. in the Carmel city hall.

The committee was appointed last week by Mayor Herbert Blanks to consider possibilities for developing a cultural and community center at Sunset School. Voters approved the purchase of the facility for this purpose in April. The 32 members of the committee represent all Carmel municipal bodies and civic, cultural, business and youth organizations.

Small businessman getting Wells Fargo welcome

The in-a-hurry executive who was just ahead of our small businessman deposited $8,186. The gal who's next will pick up a payroll nearly double that amount. Our point is that all three—executive, small boy, career gal—get the same warm welcome, the same willing service. You can call it many things—courtesy, interest, friendliness. We call it the Wells Fargo welcome. It's a Western way of doing business, and we've been part of the West for a long, long time.

Distinguished Guest At Albro Opening

A red letter event for Carmel artists and connoiseurs was last Sunday afternoon's invitational reception and preview of Maxine Albro's unique paintings.

The party was held in the Carmel Rancho Community Room where the Albro pictures will be on show until July 7.

Titled "Paintings from Tide Pools" the 30 pictures executed in tempera and oil on Japanese rice paper were for the greater part under-water studies, of marine life, fish and plants strange and beautiful in color and form.

Miss Albro (Mrs. Parker Hall) has been a resident of Carmel for a quarter of a century. A member of the Carmel Art Association her works have been shown there on many occasions. She has also had one-man shows at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor and at Gump's in San Francisco; Menlo Park's Allied Arts Guild and Santa Barbara's Biltmore Hotel.

An unexpected guest at the Albro opening who received a delighted welcome was Dr. Crista Schermuly, secretary for the arts committee of the permanent conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs, Federal Republic of Germany.

Dr. Schermuly spent four days in Carmel, the guest of the World Affairs Council of Monterey Peninsula. Her hostesses were Mrs. Helen Emmons Arnold and Mrs. Dorothy Carmalt. The weekend was planned to afford the visitor a comprehensive view of the Peninsula, especially in the field of the arts.

At the Albro preview on Saturday Dr. Schermuly met many of our distinguished artists, musicians, writers. She chatted with the Edgar Bissantzes, Angie Machado, Mrs. Philip H. Smith and Rip Matteston. A delightful surprise was finding at the reception her long-time friend, Dr. Hans Huth, fine arts expert who, incidentally, assisted Jacqueline Kennedy in her selection of numerous art objects now in the White House. Dr. and Mrs. Huth have recently come to Carmel to live.

On Sunday Dr. Schermuly's calendar included visits to the studio of Brett Weston and the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bruno Adriani. (Dr. Adriani was formerly Minister of Cultural Affairs in Germany). Dr. and Mrs. Huth entertained their fellow countryman at dinner.

Dr. Schermuly was escorted to San Francisco on Monday by Rip Matteson. For four years president of the Carmel Art Association, Mr. Matteson returned here last week after doctorate study at the University of California.

PUBLIC INVITED TO TALK ON PHOTOGRAPHY

On June 18, will hold a contest. "Candid shots" taken on a field trip to New Idria will be shown.

REPUBLICAN MEN'S CLUB MEETING

The June meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Republican Men's Club will be held Tuesday evening in the Carmel High School library.

Speaker at the meeting will be Karl V. Christierson, chairman, Monterey County Republican Central Committee, whose topic will be "How the Republican National Convention in San Francisco Will Operate."

City Employees Given 4 Percent Pay Boost

Councilman Grant ascertained that the eight-cent tax necessary to provide funds for the four percent raise would not take the city beyond its legal taxing rate of $1.00 per $100 assessed property valuation.

City Clerk Hugh Bayless showed him that Carmel is well within its legal taxing capacity. Included in the current 94½-cent tax rate are 41½ cents for the operation of the city; four cents for capital outlay; 19½ cents for employees retirement fund; 30 cents for the public library. Only 45 cents of the total falls within $1.00 taxing capacity. Other money comes from taxes set by ordinance or permitted special taxes. Carmel could add another 55 cents to its basic tax and still not exceed the $1.00 limit, Mr. Bayless indicated.

Mayor Blanks stated that income from the business district kept Carmel's property tax low compared to other cities in this area.

Mr. Grant, apparently satisfied, joined three other councilmen in voting the four percent raise, but urged consideration of "fringe benefits" in relation to increasing salaries in future. Mr. Norberg voted "No."

The council held over for study the request of Fire Chief Robert E. Smith for reclassifying three paid firemen, Paul Artellan, Maurice Grimshaw and Lee McGuckin, to officer status as fire engineers.

Councilman James Buffington pointed out that boosting all paid employees of the fire department one range in salary might result in dissatisfaction in other city departments. Mayor Herbert Blanks agreed that the proposal to promote all the fire department employees except the chief, needed evaluation and study.

Earlier, the council approved a study by the city clerk of all jobs, job requirements and salaries of all city employees before the 1965-66 budget session.

Last night, the council authorized the promotion of Edgar B. Brewer to street department shop and yard foreman, also the employment of Joan B. Snow as a clerk in the city's administrative office.

COUNTY COMMITTEE TO STUDY COMBINING SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Members of the board of education of the Carmel Unified School District and Superintendent Medill Bair will attend a meeting of the augmented county committee on school district organization on Wednesday.

One of the possibilities under consideration by the committee, at the request of the State Board of Education, is the creation of a Peninsula-wide school district which would include the present Marina, Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel districts.

Carmel district expressed unwillingness to be part of such a district at a meeting on May 6.

The meeting will be held at 700 Pacific Street, Monterey, at 7:30 p.m.

FLAG DAY

Sunday is Flag Day. Judge Eugene Harrah of Carmel will be the principal speaker at an observance to be held at the Monterey Elks Lodge, 1:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The Elk's Flag Day program is in charge of its Americanism committee of which Judge Gordon Campbell of Carmel is a member.

YOUTHS SENTENCED TO JUVENILE HALL

Yesterday, Superior Court Judge Anthony Brazil ordered three Carmel High School seniors to begin serving, immediately, in juvenile hall, a 50-day sentence. They were arrested on May 19 and charged with burglary. The youths are James Belvail Jr., Michael Faber and Karl Pallastrine.

KIWANIS LUNCHEON

Members of the Carmel Kiwanis Club and their wives were entertained last week by Kiwanis secretary Col. George Baxter at luncheon in the flower-bowered garden of the Baxter home on Lazarro Drive.

Bulletin Board To Be Replaced In Near Future

A missing bit of the Carmel way of life, the public bulletin board, will be restored as soon as the Republican tent is removed from Dolores Street near the post office.

Planning Director Floyd Adams assures everyone that the board is safe and securely in the basement of the city hall at present.

Loud laments came from citizens when the board disappeared from the wall on Sixth Street where it had been located for some years because of the remodelling of a building.

It will be replaced in a small niche off the sidewalk on the east side of Dolores just south of Fifth.

The City Council authorized this last night.

The University of California Medical Center in San Francisco began as the Toland Medical School in 1862.

Mrs. C. Dowdell Returns

Returned from a three-months stay in Europe, Mrs. Charles Dowdell was greeted by hosts of friends on Sunday when members of All Saints' Episcopal Church gathered at the site for the Church Day School just a bit over four miles up Carmel Valley.

"I got into Carmel just in time to vote," Mrs. Dowdell told, "but even more important, as I had planned, even before I left for Europe, to be back in time, plenty of time, for the Bach Festival."

Mrs. Dowdell is a member of the Carmel Bach Festival board of directors and through many years she and the late Canon Charles Dowdell have been prominent and much loved patrons. Their home, long a meeting place for renowned musicians, will this year as it has in the past, be filled with festival participants throughout the 10 days of their stay in Carmel.

Telling of her trip, Mrs. Dowdell said, "I was fortunate to have Brooks Clement as a traveling companion and when we reached Vienna we were joined by sculptor Emile Norman.

"We were in Vienna for Holy Week and Easter and the music was glorious, especially the Easter Sunday services at the magnificent Christ's Church of England."

From Vienna the trio of travellers went to Via Reggio, one of Italy's most beautiful resorts where Emile Norman maintains a studio. "I stayed at the Palace Hotel," Mrs. Dowdell reported, "and it was blissful, because it was a bit too early in the season for the avalanche of tourists and we could stroll the town with leisure and comfort . . . Florence and Rome afforded me an opportunity to visit art galleries."

Mrs. Dowdell flew directly from Rome to New York where she visited relatives. The high point of her stay there was the New York City Ballet performing in the new State Ballet Theater in Lincoln Center.

MPC Music Award

Ako Ito of Pebble Beach has won the first Herbert E. Lindsley Memorial Scholarship in Music, Dr. Harvey Marshall, chairman of the Monterey Peninsula College music department, announced this week.

The scholarship, amounting to $400, came from a fund left to MPC for "sophomore students of high academic standing" by the late county counsel, who was a part-time instructor at the college.

Miss Ito, a finished classical guitarist, has been studying piano and voice as a music major at MPC, appearing twice as soloist in public performances given by the college chorus. Originally from Sapporo, Hokkaido, Japan, she has made her home while on the Peninsula with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl of Pebble Beach.

Fun, Fun, Fun!

By postcard, Lydia Criley tells friends that the boat trip she and her husband, Don, and their sons, Teddie and Donnie, took from New York to Naples was "Fun, fun, fun!" They arrived in Italy on June 3 and last week were enjoying "wonderful food, weather and a great hotel built in 1870 with the largest bathrooms ever" while exploring Naples. Later Lydia and the boys will continue on to Greece with Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Criley of Claremont, and Don will return to Carmel.

Eastern Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw Williams were busy last weekend showing this area to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyers of Philadelphia, parents of their son-in-law, Harvey Meyers of Berkeley. He and his wife, Alice, and their children, Cynthia, four and a half, and Nat, two and a half, accompanied the Meyers to Carmel Highlands. The elder Meyers were on their first trip to California and their enjoyment of the Peninsula and the coast south of Carmel was almost equal to their pleasure in being with their grandchildren whom they had not seen since shortly after Nat's birth in Annapolis, Maryland.

In California... at a picnic, beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst's whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In California...beer goes with fun, with relaxation

The Sur Coast

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

Alba Heywood has, during the past many months of earnest work and sincere devotion, produced a collection of 30 oil paintings which will be exhibited in the first West Coast showing of the artist's work beginning Monday in San Francisco. An invitational preview will mark the opening of the show, June 15 at 5:30 p.m. at the Maxwell Galleries, 551 Sutter Street. The exhibition will continue through July 3.

Mr. Heywood has lived and worked in Big Sur for the past four years in a home and studio designed by Mark Mills of Carmel, situated in a dramatically beautiful setting, high on the slopes of the Santa Lucia Mountains over-looking the sea, and completely enveloped in the grandeur of the famed coastal country.

Born in Louisiana, Heywood spent a number of years in New York. There he studied with Edwin Dickinson of the Art Students League. His desire to improve in his chosen field of endeavor, took him to England where he found the opportunity to closely study the last of the great masters of draftsmanship and craftsmanship.

Mrs. La Verne Allen, curator of the Coast Gallery in Big Sur (Alba Heywood is one of the more than 50 Big Sur artists represented at the Gallery) says of Mr. Heywood, "he has a fine academic background, which is reflected in the meticulous technique characterizing his paintings" — he works in all media, and "their relationship to nature manifests itself in many directions." This quality of freedom and refinement will be noted in the exhibit at San Francisco which is referred to as the artists' "Reflections of Big Sur."

Mr. Heywood is pleased and honored that the Maxwell Galleries have elected to display his work for the galleries have, in the past 20 years, brought to San Francisco an unrivaled collection of fine paintings. They are proud to state that they have the most complete collection of French Impressionists, Post-Impressionists, Old and Modern Masters, on the West Coast. Artist Heywood's "reflections" will be presented in an atmosphere where Renoir, Sisley, Klee, Utrillo, Dufy, Roussel, Cassatt, Corot, and the works of scores of other great painters grace the walls of the gallery.

Children's Theater Project

"The Little Lyric Theater of Big Sur" is being incorporated as a non-profit organization, and represents a long-time dream of Gene Perrine (musical director of Captain Cooper and Tularcitos elementary schools), to have a theater of music in Big Sur to encourage boys and girls of talent, and who qualify, to have a summer-long course of training in the musical arts.

The summer workshop will be free to children between the ages of 8 and 15 from all areas of the Peninsula — or for that matter any part of the country if they have talent and qualify— and classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Big Sur Grange Hall beginning June 30 and concluding August 9. At the close of the summer, a full-scale production will be presented to the public and proceeds will be returned to "The Little Lyric Theater of Big Sur" to further the work.

Through the generosity and the desire on the part of a highly-esteemed citizen of Big Sur, to provide a constructive, rewarding and delightful community project for Big Sur and environs, a foundation grant has been obtained which will assure the workshop's continuance for the next several years.

With joyous enthusiasm, Director Perrine reports that a number of young people have already qualified for this first summer's work which will include a Chinese opera and another opera to be created on the Greek theme of Narcissus and Echo.

For further information and/or auditions communicate with Mr. Gene Perrine, The Little Lyric Theater of Big Sur, Big Sur, California.

Fire Chief Retires

Lawrence E. MacWhinney, of Big Sur, has just retired as fire chief at the Naval Air Facility, Monterey. Appropriate ceremonies were held in his honor at the facility last week, and he received on that occasion a miniature fire chief's badge made of gold. Mr. MacWhinney's retirement marks the successful completion of 40 years of combined service with the Navy, Marine Corps and Civil Service. In the fall Mr. and Mrs. MacWhinney will leave for an extended vacation trip to Mexico. For the summer months, the recently retired fire chief is associated with the Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park.

The modern hell has electric fanners,
But the modern heaven has "city planners."

Heaven to-day is a shopping mall
With dinner music for one and all

Where both the poor and the rich may sup
On Paul Masson, or Seven Up,

Steak and martinis. You know, it's funny,
No one orders milk and honey.

SPIRIT-LED

There was no voice, no whisper said,
"Go this path, not the accustomed way,"
Yet I was surely spirit-led
To choose the road I walked today.

You who want proof that this was true
Follow that pathway, go and see
Foregleam of Heaven in the blue
Of flowering jacaranda tree.

FUCHSIA

The outer petals of the fuchsia are the first to die;
Boldest in color, four-squared toward adversity,
They curl back proudly and give up their youth.

Next do the stamens droop, the pistils bow their feathered heads,
Unsexed and withered. Bees and hummingbirds fly past,
Oblivious to the lures of yesterday.

Now clustered tight in self-wrapped dignity, but darkening fast,
Eight inner petals hang there by a tenuous breath,
Nursing the seed that forms, all colorless, to tell a somber world
"There is no death!"

TRUE VISION

Though fog and clouds may hide the sun
On dark and dreary days,
Remember it's in heaven still
Sending out its rays.
And if we wish to see the beams
That make our world seem bright
Then we will have to look beyond
The dark — to see the light.

FREEWAY COMING THROUGH

The street resists in silence, loud as speech.
All words are said, there's nothing more to do;
So soon, old house, to pass beyond my reach—
But I shall not await the wrecking crew.
Strong-beamed and beautiful and meant to last;
There is no rot, no borer small and sly,
Your walls and bolts and stairs are sound and fast—
I take the last step down. This is goodbye.

Into my very bones your ribs are built:
This was a home from floorboard unto rafter;
The fireplace bricks, bright patterned like a quilt—
And how we gathered here with love and laughter!
You'll hear my heartbeats echo to the end—
Crash proudly, holding what no blow can rend.

Here is Carmel's newest Shop-ping Court where gifts and mer-chandise of unusual distinction are offered for the discriminating shopper. No need to run out of ideas as to what to get for the people who have everything, or for the right article for the right purpose. Carmel Square shops are individually different, and a buy-er's delight when it comes to the really reasonable prices. And the superb dining places are an ex-perience in themselves, clearly out of the ordinary.

At the sign of the Fox, first shop on your right as you enter the court, you will find an amaz-ing assortment of wanted articles such as to delight the eye with their attractiveness and downright practicality. Instruments, measur-ing devices, elegant tools in eleg-ant cases, and even needles in shapes and sizes hard to get. Here are gifts and birthday presents enough for a hundred different oc-casions, and the kind you can't find elsewhere. Drop in and browse around. You will find it an unusual adventure.

Next door, John Boit Morse well-known art connoisseur, has established a gallery displaying paintings, drawings and sculpture in the modern style and percep-tion. Here you will find the latest in new paintings, in keeping with the modern decor.

erything for the traveler." How simply delightful to be able to find just the right gift for that "going away" present, or just the correct equipment for yourself and for those who journey here and there. The Unicorn is the place to go for that hard-to-find gadget or needed article which is only found in the foreign specialty shop. A visit will entrance you.

"La Marmite" is French for the kettle or pot, which is also the name of a famous gourmet restaurant in London. In Carmel's La Marmite, you will find pottage, or potage par excellence, which can be interpreted to mean that the food here is wonderful. To eat lunch or dinner here is to dine in the continental manner, elegantly but inexpensively. Carmel people are already flocking to La Marmite to enjoy the exquisite cooking and down-to-earth food at down-to-earth prices. And, fellows, here is the place to take your best girl for dinner. You'll be glad you did.

On your left as you enter Carmel Square, you will find Cal's Liquor Store, where the finest in wines and spirits are always in stock. Cal's also features "bargains" in potables, which is also known as saving money on liquors. Also prominent in this modern store is the magazine rack, and a marvelous stock of cigars, cigarettes and smokers' supplies. You can please "Dad" on Father's Day by getting him his favorite drinkables, and a box of his special cigars.

India-Burma Imports is a treasure house of beautiful and exotic art objects made of brass and other attractive materials. The beauty and usefulness of these articles is immediately apparent to the visitor, because a gift is doubly appreciated when it is not only decorative, but practical and utilitarian. One is really amazed that these fine articles are for sale, and at such low prices, when one considers that these are the kind of things one sees in a museum and not ordinarily within reach of the ardent shopper for the unusual. Go in and look around. You will enjoy just looking.

"Him," which is the shop where you can find "distinctive gifts for the man in your life," is directly facing you as you walk through the court. At the time of going to press, this shop was not entirely ready for the opening, as so much of the merchandise had to be ordered from a great distance, and, unfortunately had not arrived. But be sure to keep this shop in mind for Father's Day, because you certainly cannot make any mistake buying your gifts here. He will say, "That's just what I've always wanted!"

Details of what has been designated as the "English Pub" on our ground floor plan shown here, is more or less shrouded in mystery. Rumor has it that the place will have one of those distinctive English names, such as "The Red Lion," "The Lamb and Eagle," or "The Kings Arms." We haven't been able to find out. But we do know that all Carmel is anxiously waiting to see if a bit of Old England is to be transported to our midst.

prior to their fixed maturity date or dates at the principal amount thereof and accrued interest thereon to date of redemption, together with a premium of ¼ of 1% of such principal amount for each whole twelve months' period and for any fraction of a twelve-month period from the date fixed for redemption to the fixed maturity date of the bonds so called for redemption.

PAYMENT:

Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the City Treasurer, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Monterey County, California, or at the respective offices of the paying agents of the City for said bonds in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, at the option of the holder.

EXECUTION AND REGISTRATION:

Coupon bonds will be issued by said City. Said bonds will be executed by the manual signature of at least one official authorized to execute the bonds. Said bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE:

Said bonds are authorized by vote of two-thirds of the qualified voters voting at a special municipal bond election for the purpose of authorizing bonds for public improvements for the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

SECURITY:

Said bonds are general obligations of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and said City has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said City subject to taxation by said City (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates) without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS:

In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service, or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the City, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION:

The legal opinion of Messrs. Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe, of San Francisco, California, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

Highest Bid:

The bonds will be awarded to the highest bidder, considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the City would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to their respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the City. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the City.

Right of Rejection:

The City Council reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award:

The City Council will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder. Prompt notice of the award will be given to the successful bidder.

Prompt Delivery:

Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, 300 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the date of sale thereof, but not prior to the date of the bonds. The successful bidder will be given 7 days advance notice of the time fixed for the delivery of the bonds.

Right of Cancellation:

The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the City shall fail to execute the bonds and tender the same for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid:

All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, and endorsed "Proposal for City of Carmel-by-the-Sea 1964 Municipal Improvement Bonds."

Bid Check:

With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea to secure the City from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the City on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the City. Checks of all bidders (except the successful bidder) will be returned by the City by mail promptly following the sale date above specified. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Official Statement:

The City has prepared an Official Statement relating to the bonds, copies of which will be furnished upon request to the City Clerk or to Stone & Youngberg, Russ Building, San Francisco, California, the City's financial consultants.

There is no litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the City or the title of the officers thereof to their respective offices, and the City will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregong as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Art News . . .

On a recent trip to the Baja California peninsula and the mainland of Mexico, Photographer Brett Weston studied various aspects of the terrain through which he passed. Some three dozen prints, mostly the results of this study, were shown Sunday afternoon at his Carmel Highlands studio.

A master of camera technique, Mr. Weston gave evidence of this in his latest show which included landscapes, nudes, rock formations, plants, trees, a broken window, and the skeletons of turtle shells.

His manner of handling the subjects for his camera ranged from sharp black and white relief to the three-dimensional quality of a study of fog among the pines in varying tones of grey emphasized by black.

His unique ability to handle light was also evidenced. That he has the ability to portray stark reality as well as poetical quality was a delight to those invited to his exhibition.

Alumni of the California College of Arts and Crafts who have pledged works of art to the college's permanent collection include Joe Ataide, Joe Broadman, Alex Gonzales and John La Pierre, all local artists.

This evening will be the last opportunity to see the prizewinning prints from Monterey Peninsula College's second annual photography contest on exhibit in the student union on the MPC campus.

Helen M. Barker, noted Carmel artist, through June 30, is having a one-man show of 24 of her pictures at the Artists Guild of America, Monte Verde and Ocean. She is the wife of Nick LeFeuvre, commercial artist and actor.

Helen M. Barker is a member of the Carmel Art Association and the Scandinavian American Art Society of the West. Her work has been exhibited at the De Young Museum in San Francisco, also in Richmond, Santa Cruz, and Los Angeles. She has won numerous awards for her work in Southern California.

The fourth annual Studio Open House Tour of the Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts will be on July 18. Studios of artists and artisans of the coastal area south of Carmel Mission Basilica will be featured this year, also the home of Stuyvesant Fish, Palo Corona Ranch.

Studios open to the public will be those of Ansel Adams, photography; Ruth Buol, enamels; Ephraim Doner, paintings and tiles; Joe Feuerborn, paintings; Virginia Neilson, flower arrangements at the Fish ranch; Jessie Quigley, paintings; Joan Koslan Schwartz, stitchery and plastics; Charles Thomas and Ruth Jordan Allan, paintings and sculpture.

Saturday, "Rebel in Paradise," a documentary film on Paul Gaugin will be shown for AFA members at the group's headquarters on Lincoln Street in concurrence with the opening of the exhibit of oil paintings of the Polynesian Islands by Aad van der Heyde. This show will be on exhibit free to the public in AFA headquarters June 13-July 10.

Through June, watercolors by Rollin Pickford will be on exhibit at the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History. Mr. Pickford is one of the country's leading watercolorists. He has won 97 awards in the United States including a first in the Watercolor U.S.A. show in 1962. His work is included in 600 private and nine private collections. He is listed in "Who's Who in American Art" and "Who's Who in the West" and is a member of the Carmel Art Association, the California Watercolor Society and West Coast watercolor Society. This show may be seen, free to the public, daily except Monday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

A one-man show of oils by Jane Buffington will continue in the small gallery of the Carmel Art Association until July 2.

The Beardsley Room for the next two weeks will be used for a retrospective exhibition of the work of Edda Heath, one of the association's founders. A new membership show is open in the main gallery.

The board of directors of the Carmel Art Association will entertain members at a cocktail-buffet party in the association's galleries on June 17 from 5:30-8 p.m. Invitations must be presented at the door.

MPVS Thrift Shop Proceeds For June To Go To Hospital

Mrs. John Howard will represent the group working at the reception desk; Mrs. Joseph Earnshaw, library and transportation; Mrs. Theodore Mossis, snack bar; Mrs. James Parks, office and special services; and Mrs. Robert M. Brown, associates. Thrift Shop chairman include Mrs. S. Y. Cutler, personnel administrator; Miss Gwendolyn De Forest, Mrs. W. Egbert Schenck, Mrs. Ethel Gilleland, Mrs. C. H. McIntyre and Mrs. H. L. Boyd Mewborn, MPVS merchandise chairman. Arrangements for pick-ups can be made by phoning 375-7692 or 624-4041.

Co-host Werner Kalmus smilingly welcomes guests at the Marquis preview party.

UNEMPLOYMENT CENSUS

The reasons why people are looking for work . . . whether they lost or quit jobs, left school, or other reasons . . . will be the basis of a June population survey conducted by the U.S. Bureau of the Census in Carmel next week. Mrs. Mary L. Upjohn will be the local census bureau interviewer.

ON and OFF the AVENUES

By Carolyn Elstob

What with weddings, graduations and vacation plans the big social news — wondering what on earth all the women involved (from infancy on, that is) will wear this summer, is for me just doing what comes naturally.

Yesterday I sped (not on spike heels, I'm true Carmel) to just five of my favorite shops, to get the picture.

Corinne Swalwell, bless her for having two decades of experience, has, in BELLES AND BEAUS, just everything under the sun for ladies and gentlemen, too—from five minutes old to size 14 for girls, six-X, for boys. The infant gift ensembles are life savers for doting relatives and friends — elegant as they are practical. Puffs, nylon, dacron filled have bewitching satin appliques and matching musical pillows, wonderfully sleep-inducing! There's a baby travel kit, smart plastic case, a reasonably small beach bag type of thing. In it is everything you'll need when traveling, right down to a rattle.

Knowing this fickle climate, Miss Swalwell has a magnificent stock of all year 'round coats, windbreakers and sweaters for both belles and beaus. You'll love the shop, you'll say—Away with all this family planning nonsense! BELLES AND BEAUS, a Shop for Children, between Doroles and Lincoln.

Swim? Yes my darling daughter. Go to LORENE SCALA first and you'll never drown, you'll be too busy parading with sand between your toes. This year-old shop is really an offshoot of Lorene Scala's swagger New York establishment, beautifully managed by Lorene's daughter, Mrs. Albert Hood. Wonderful casual clothes, but my mind is on beath and swim wear. Rose Marie Reid's concoctions are all over the place . . . See the Shift, in hot pink, terrific; "Executive Suite" is one-piece, blouson business in charcoal and vanilla-grand if you tan. Jantzen's Bahama plaid swim suit goes on and on, it's a short shift, it has a wrap skirt, for beaching or waving, it's all yours.

Elizabeth Stewart's blouson top affair in a brushed texture is almost too good to be true! Remember, there are literally dozens of choices by these top designers and every blessed one in quick-dry swim-proof fabrics. There are mad terry cloth accescories and bathing caps, mad too. LORENE SCALA, Pantiles Court, Dolores street, opposite Carmel Art Association.

Just as you would expect, fancy footwork and I mean really fancy, is for you at FOOTLIGHTS AND FANCY where the unexpected in head-to-toe fashion originals are to be found for your favorite campaigning program, conservative or outer fringe.

The jewelled sandals, for both sides of the footlights, will keep you right up front in the social marathon, walking, dancing or just tapping your toe. Play Persian with dangling jewels that do wonders for a trim ankle . . . There is a simply endless selection of colors, pastel and poster bright as well as gold, silver and black. Heels? Spike, hour glass, flat and nearly flat.

And! the first in Carmel so far as I know, those lace hose that the national fashion magazines are raving about. They stretch, for the slickest fit imaginable, they come in all colors and, bless me, or rather bless Dorothy Dean Stevens for finding them, they come in a terrific assortment of lace designs. Select a whole wardrobe to dramatize your tweeds, your cottons and your most exotic evening togs.

If you are a thong sandal addict here is an added blessing. Here you will find your Thong hose, you know, the kind that puts your great toe in its own section. Available in a choice of shades. FOOTLIGHTS AND FANCY, Dolores at Fifth, adjoining the Post Office parking lot.

Where the in-and-out-of-college and those casual fashion addicts, who just haven't let their figures soar on and on, congregate, the MARK FENWICK SHOP of course. I had a whirl, looking at a whole wagon load of top status shirts. Honest, it's a real wagon, right there, and the shirt makers include Lady Gant; Lady Van Heusen; McMullen; Tanner and Country Shirt! For fun, for sports, to wear with skirts, shorts or pants you'll find cottons, linens, madras and silks . . . prints, dainty or dashing, stripes and solid colors, all impeccably tailored and detailed. The dresses, suits and coats, plus in tempo accessories, in this beautiful shop are selected by dashing Courtney Brunn for the discerning who demand impeccable workmanship and individuality. MARK FENWICKS in Carmel is more like a club than a store—you meet about everybody you know! And now, in case you travel, there's a new MARK FENWICK SHOP in Santa Clara. Along with Magnin's and such it is in the Stevens Creek Plaza, and Courtney sparkled as she told me that it is triple the size of Carmel's and it displays in the same friendly atmosphere, top fashions for the fastidious. MARK FENWICK SHOP, Carmel Plaza.

In fashion as in art the words "hand made" are symbols of true elegance and beauty. And now, right here in Carmel you can have sandals in beautiful leathers, dyed to suit your whim, made from a tracing of your own foot. You can even order riding boots! In the tiny SANDAL SPOT I sniffed the aromatic scent of leather and I whirled from one display to another of Sandals; stunning Handbags; Billfolds and Belts for men, women and children.

The creations of Jim and Kay Beeman are tops in craftsmanship and quality. For most part the sandals are the barefoot type and Cobbler Jim will go along with your ideas — if you have any. Through a wide doorway you'll see paintings and unique picture frames, but that's another Beeman story. Intrigued? THE SANDAL SPOT, Lincoln near Seventh.

From Bay Area

Miriam and Robert Toren who own and operate the Toren Galleries in San Francisco were here last weekend to attend the show of Brett Weston's prints in his Carmel Highlands studio. The Torens' gallery shows photographs only and this fall will present an exhibition of the late Edward Weston's prints, also a one-man show of Wynn Bullock's work.

Creative Writing

The Howard Bobbses are off to Mexico on June 15. Daughter Norrie will enter the Instituto Allende for an intensive course in creative writing while her mother and father go in search of the antiquities of the country, making San Miguel Allende their base. Howard plans to paint as they go along with their main objective little known parts of Mexico. The Bobbses' younger daughters, Margery and Sheila, will remain in Carmel until their parents and elder sister return, about September 15.

White flowers decorated the candlelit altar of the Church of the Wayfarer on June 7 when Susan Marie Baldwin became the wife of Ronald C. Johnson in a ceremony performed by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray at 3 p.m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta gown with appliques of lace around the portrait neckline and on the bodice and long skirt which fell into a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a pearl coronet. White daisies surrounded the orchid in the center of her bouquet.

Her maid of honor was Ellen Miller. Bridesmaids were Shonii Spicer and Mrs. Richard Baldwin, her sister-in-law. They were clad alike in draped aqua chiffon over taffeta dresses with matching veiled hats. White daisies were used for their bouquets. Kathy Baldwin, the bride's sister was junior bridesmaid in a long aqua frock. She carried a basket of white daisies.

Mrs. Baldwin attended her daughter's wedding in a beige ensemble with matching hat and accessories.

The reception following the marriage was held in Garden Room of the church. White carnations surrounded the three-tiered wedding cake on the candlelit table.

The young couple is now at home in Pacific Grove at 4 Arkwright Court. The bridegroom is an employee of Western Electric company and the bride works for the Pacific Grove Branch of the Bank of America. She graduated from Carmel High School in 1963.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson of Bonners Ferry, Idaho. He completed military service at Fort Ord a year ago. The bride's brother was his best man and Mike Mosolf an usher.

Laura Marie Mayo Born

Frank and Billie Mayo became parents for the first time on June 3. Their daughter, whom they have named Laura Marie, was born at the Community Hospital. Her birth weight was nine pounds, ten ounces.

The baby and her parents are staying with Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fritsche in Carmel Valley at present. Laura Marie's paternal grandmother is Mrs. Freda Mayo of Carmel.

Laura Marie's father and mother live during the college year in northern California where her father is majoring in zoology and minoring in oceanography at Humboldt State College.

Mexico via Oregon

Mrs. Marjorie Cain and her daughter, Marci, left last week for San Miguel Allende in Mexico where they plan to spend the summer as they did last year, and maybe stay longer. They drove first, however, to Oregon to visit relatives, and then will drive inland highways to San Miguel instead of taking the coast route as they did last time.

Parties for Nancy

Nancy Lofton, whose wedding will take place this Saturday afternoon is in that happy furor of plans and parties that can come only once in a lifetime.

At noon on June 13 Nancy, the daughter of the Richard Loftons, will be joined in matrimony to Edward Faridany, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Faridany of Birmingham, England, and Teheran, Iran, in All Saints' Episcopal Church with the Reverend Peter Farmer officiating.

With her younger sister "Missy," just graduated from eighth grade at Santa Catalina School, as her maid of honor, Nancy will be preceded up the aisle by six bridesmaids and two flower girls.

The bridegroom, just arrived from Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he has been attending Harvard University as a graduate student, will have Frank Shields of New York City as his best man and six friends of his undergraduate days at the University of California as ushers.

On Tuesday Nancy was the guest of two of her bridesmaids, Nancy and Francesca Farr, who gave a trousseau-tea in her honor. Very special guests were Nancy's future mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Faridany and Jennifer, who arrived from London earlier in the week.

Yesterday the wedding party was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Washburn in Corral de Tierra. It was a picnic luncheon, particularly intriguing to the visitors from England.

Today the bride-to-be gave a luncheon for her attendants at Pine Inn and tomorrow evening, following the wedding rehearsal, Mrs. Frank Lloyd and Mrs. Valentine Miller will give a dinner for the entire wedding party.

Following the marriage ceremony there will be a reception in the home of the bride's parents.

IT'S FOR THE BIRDS

Also for people—the adorable gardens and patios of a Carmel Cottage perched on a sunny hill in the Woods. (Yes, you can see the ocean, too.) All the necessities, such as fireplace, trees, a waterfall, plus a carpeted, beamed ceiling living room, two light, airy bedrooms, and a compact kitchen. $26,500, with a low down payment. When can you see it?

BUILDING SITE FOR BIRD WATCHERS

If you're imaginative and want to build your home in an unusually tranquil setting, we'd like to show you 4.7 acres in and on the River up in sunny Carmel Valley. Bring your sketch pad, sneakers, a sack of seed for the birds, and we'll provide a picnic lunch. The price is $20,000. (Without the lunch, $19,999.10).

BORN UNDER A WANDERING STAR?

Then all you really need in Carmel is a little cottage where you can hang your hat. It should be NICE, though, so you won't spend all your time housekeeping, and have a low maintenance patio and yard. How about $19,500 for a price?

WE UNDERSTAND THAT PEOPLE who can buy homes in the $80,000 price range do not read classified columns. However, we have an impression that perhaps people get into that higher bracket because they did read those columns. Anyhow, if $82,500 is in your range, you'll never find a greater bargain or a lovelier home than the four-bedroom one Mrs. Ireland just listed, because the owners had just finished hanging the Czech glass and Spanish brass light fixtures and laying the 248 sq. yds. of carpeting when their plans changed and they listed the house below replacement. In one of the loveliest areas of Hatton Fields, too.

AND DOWN ON SAN ANTONIO

we have a lovely home with separate guest quarters which has one of the most gracious living rooms we've ever seen. On a different level from the rest of the house, and overlooking the ocean. Two beautiful bedrooms and maid's room in the main house, lovely dining room and bar facilities. Interesting entrance court and sunny, enclosed patio. We are offering this property at $75,000.

PASS THE ROSES, PLEASE !

IF WE CAN GET you past the beautiful rose-lined path, and make you stop gazing at the lovely oaks in the garden long enough to see the antiqued redwood living room and dining room of this fine two bedroom, two bath home, you're sure to fall in love with the whole place, but you'll probably spend most of your time on the sundeck anyway. Oh, well! The price is just $34,500, or, if you'd like the nice lot next door thrown in, $42,500.

ORCHIDS BLOOM IN THE PATIO . . .

TWO PATIOS, actually, but the one which thrills us is off the living room and dining room. Gorgeous roses here, too! Three bedrooms, three baths, and a very large kitchen with laundry. Double garage. Being on Carmel point, there's an ocean view, of course, but those patios! $75,000.

LANDSCAPED BY THE MASTER ARCHITECT . . .

MOTHER NATURE did herself proud with the views from this beautiful Pebble Beach home near Midway Point. Three bedrooms plus a maid's room, three baths. Tile floors in the living room, dining room and lovely modern kitchen. Ours exclusively, and we can show at any time.

revived interst in the theater by Sunday afternoon presentations. Repairing the facility and having it used by a theater group would be "an addition to Carmel culture," he suggested.

Mayor Herbert Blanks asked the Community Theater to present a firm proposal at the July council meeting. In the meantime he referred the Forest Theater — Community Theater matter to Councilmen Grant and Norberg for study and report next month.

The council then voted $250 to permit continuance of the arts commission Sunday programs.

BEER BAN

Last night the city council adopted the amended ordinance which prohibits the drinking of alcoholic beverages on the beach, also the possession of such beverages. It immediately became effective and the police department is empowered to arrest offenders.

Business Association Asks For Opinions On Annexation

All persons interested in, or opposed to, annexation of surrounding areas to the city are asked to attend the Carmel Business Association general meeting on June 18 at the Mission Ranch.

Those unable to be present are asked by President Isabel Tostevin to write their opinions on annexation to Box 4444, Carmel, or to telephone 624-2930 before the meeting date.

At the meeting, Gladys McCloud will give a report on the annexation plan backed and sponsored by the association. Discussion will follow dinner at 7:30 p.m. and a no host cocktail party at 6:30.

The business association is trying to decide whether annexation of areas bordering the city, or spot annexation of nearby areas not adjacent to the city limits, will be preferable procedure.

Any sponsoring group in the Carmel area is invited by the association to send representatives to give their group's stand on the annexation proposal.

(The City of Carmel has a total area of .875 of a mile. Within these 560 acres live 4,580 persons.)

At next week's business association meeting Gordon Hall will report further on the Monterey Peninsula Area Plan; Mark Raggett on Christmas-in-Carmel planning; Robert Spencer on the Sunset School Committee. Thirty-five new members will be welcomed at the meeting.

whatsdoing?

I couldn't even guess how long it would take to count from one to 2 quadrillion 600 trillion, because such a figure is so colossal. Yet that's the number of different connections in the Bell System's switching equipment. And they make it possible for any one of the 68 million telephones in the System's network to reach any other phone. But because this switching is done so swiftly, you'll never be aware of all the mechanical decisions it takes to pick a path from your number to the one you're dialing. Yes, 2,600,000,000,000,000 adds up—to speed and dependability whenever you phone.

Did you know that here on the Monterey Peninsula, we have 2199 more telephones in service now than we had on January 1st of this year?

Bazaars are the fantastic "supermarkets" of the Middle East. There, amid the crowds and the cries of shopkeepers, you can find everything imaginable—and some things that aren't. But, did you know there's an even wider selection of goods and services right in the Yellow Pages of your own phone book? Next time, why not check them out before you shop. The Yellow Pages is one bazaar you can go through without leaving the comfort of your easy chair.

Telephone people recently installed the "hottest" communications system anywhere. They put armor plate around phone equipment at the Pacific Missile Range to keep it from burning up during rocket blast-off. Because the phone serves every operation important to countdown, its protection is vital to launchings.

WHAT TO DO TO GET HELP IN AN EMERGENCY

If you don't have a list of emergency numbers handy, dial "O" for Operator. She's trained to handle these situations and she has all the numbers of vital services at her fingertips. Try to give her as much information as you can, including the number you're calling from and the nature and location of the emergency. It's good to know your telephone operator is always there, ready to help. Pacific Telephone
